When you're down and troubled
And you need some loving care And nothing, nothing is going right

Close your eyes and think of me
And soon I will be there To brighten up even your darkest night

You just call out my name
And you know wherever I am I'll come running to see you again

Winter Spring, Summer, or Fall
All you have to do is call And I'll be there You've got a friend

If the sky above you Grows dark and full of clouds

And that old north wind begins to blow
Keep your head together

And call my name out loud Soon you'll hear me Knocking at your door

Some men are lights
Others are only mirrors
Some men are thinkers Others are only computers Programed by anothers thoughts.

Some men are inventors, others just copiers
Some men are pillars, others are simply planks
You are a light, you are a thinker You are an inventor, you are a pillar.
Day after day you worked, played, and studied with us. You made us aware of the forces that shape our lives. You taught us true values. You turned our thoughts toward the eternal, instead of the temporary. You were interested in our welfare.

You made the dull--- exciting you were willing to try and understand us. You were always ready to lend a helping hand when we needed it.

For all you have been to us and for all you have done for us, we dedicate this 1975 Maple Log to you,

Mr. Arlie Fandrich

Seniors

While growing up, we find ourselves face to face with many different situations. Some good, some bad, and some are easy. But there is one that we must all face someday that is quite difficult, and that is death. The loss and complete separation from someone you love.

When this happens we must be strong in the Lord, because we cannot be by ourselves. We dedicate these pages of the yearbook to our missing friend, Robert Vollmer, from our class of 1975. We all loved and miss him very much, as a classmate, school friend, and buddy. No, it's not the same without him. But God knows how to heal the pain it left and make us smile again.

We thank God for the knowledge of his beautiful truth and promises. We don't have to mourn any more. We can all get ready to go to heaven. The faster we work the sooner, by God's grace, we will see our lost friend. In His mighty book God tells us He will come again and take His children to a new heaven and a new earth. There we'll never hear the cry of pain or the heartbroken sobs of death. It is our prayer that we may all be together there and live forever more.

Week of Prayer

During the month of September Pastor Paul Nystrom had our student Week of Prayer. He brought his favorite guitar and harmonica with him. We talked on how God loves us so much and how we can apply this love to our lives. Friday evening we had a communion service which ended a beautiful week.

Temperance

Temperance: (n) the state or quality of being temperate; self-restraint in conduct, expression, indulgence of the appetites, etc.; moderation

This year our temperance oration and Bible quiz winners spent an enjoyable weekend at Oak Park Academy along with contestants from three other academies.

Story Hour

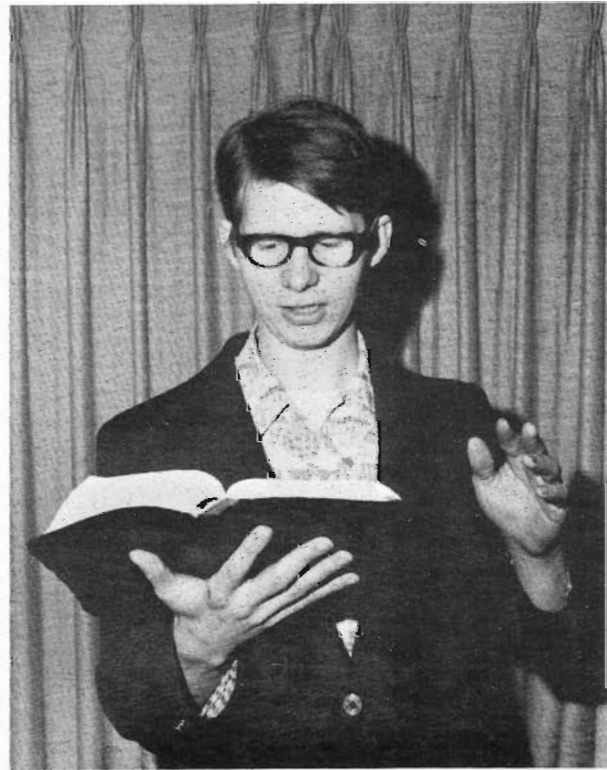

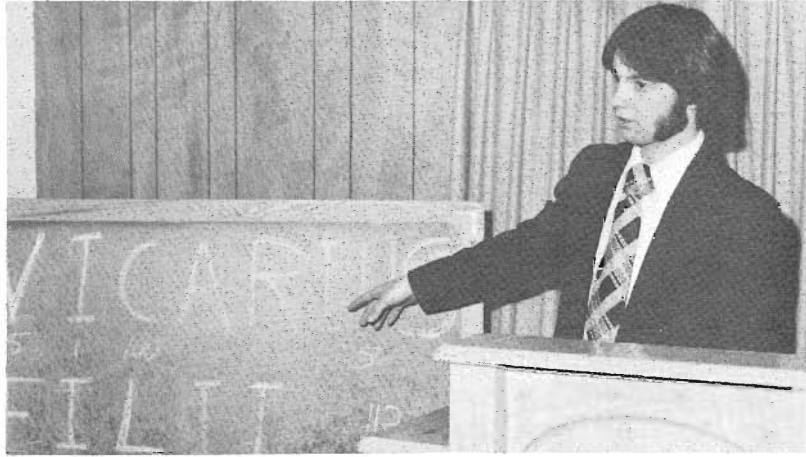

John Oien and Karen Smith were the leaders of the "Childrens Story Hour". About 20 to 30 children came each week to the academy to sing songs and learn of God. Story Hour was enjoyed by the students who participated just as much as it was by the children.

Voice of Youth

Much prayer and planning with helpful suggestions from Pastor Rick and Pastor Daniel saw 63 students happily participating in the Voice of Youth evangelistic series during the first part of the new year.

The colorful "Bible Cartoons" from Daniel and Revelations, the beautiful musical numbers, and the interesting talks all combined under the guidance of the Holy Spirit created an atmosphere in which five new souls took their stand in baptism.

Somebody Bigger

Who made the mountain, who made the tree,
Who made the river flow to the sea,
And who hung the moon in the starry sky?
Somebody Bigger Than You and I.

Who makes the flowers bloom in the spring,
Who writes the song for the robin to sing,
And who sends the rain when the earth is dry?
Somebody Bigger Than You and I.

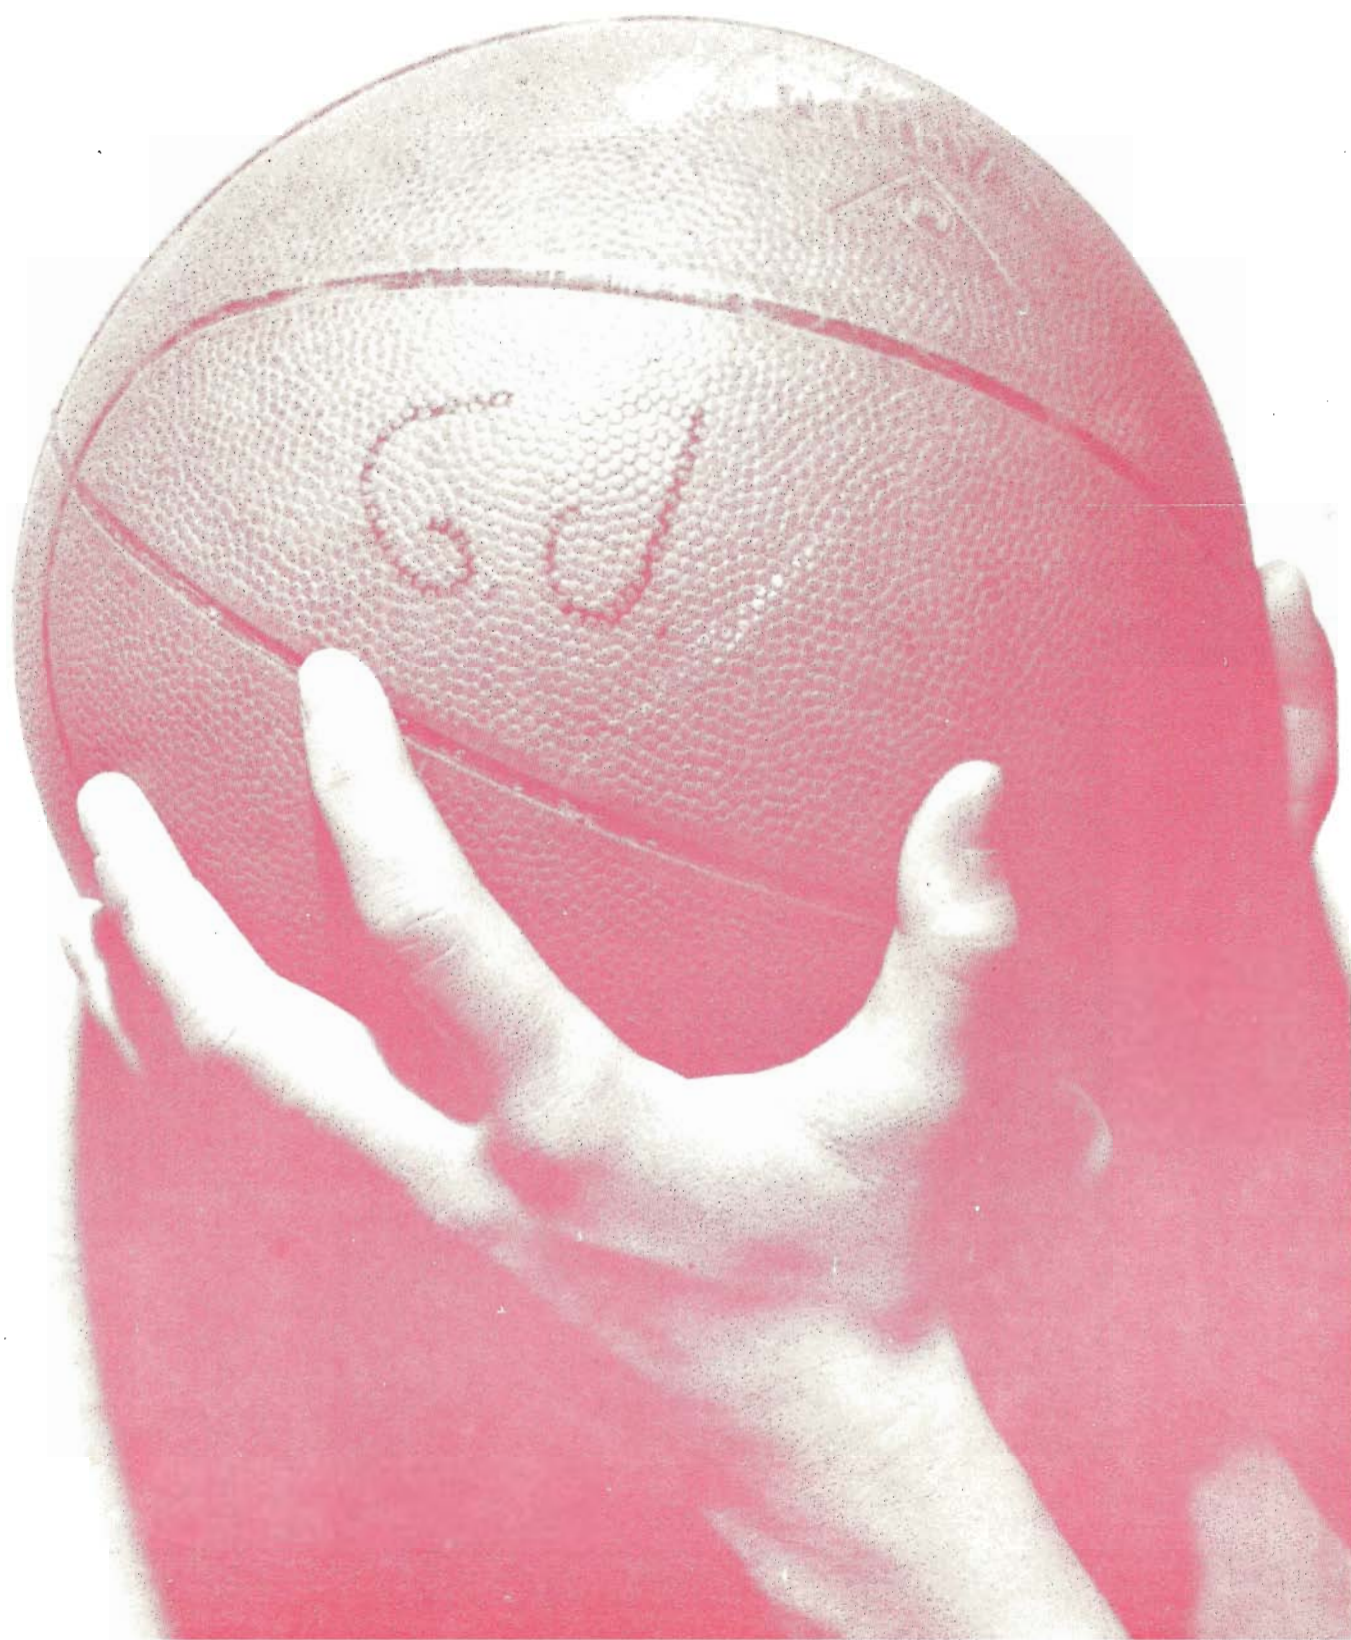

He lights the way when the road is long,
Keeps you company.
With Love to guide you He walks beside you, Just like he walks with me.

When I am weary, Filled with despair,
Who gives me courage to go on from there,
And who gives me faith that will never die?
Somebody Bigger Than You and I.

Handshake

Excitement! Registration Day!

198 voices of excited students were heard on Sept. 4. Old friends renewed their friendships and new student met new friends. That night every one met every one by the traditional handshake. And once again another year at Maplewood had begun.

A. & B. Picnic

Rise at 8:00 on a Sunday? Usually unheard of. But worship in the gym started everyone off to a great day. Running, jumping, throwing, and falling was all apart of the ASB Picnic.

There appeared to be stiff competition between most classes. In the end the seniors pulled ahead and won.

Everyone got alot of exercise and fresh air and were quite tired at the end of the day — leading to a good nights rest.

Fall Festival

The night started with a home style meal. Tickets were given to each person. That for? For all the games, booths, and excitement that proceeded in the gym. There was everything from popping balloons with darts, throwing foot-balls through hanging tires to bobbing for apples and getting your picture taken. Then followed the movie, which was enjoyed by all.

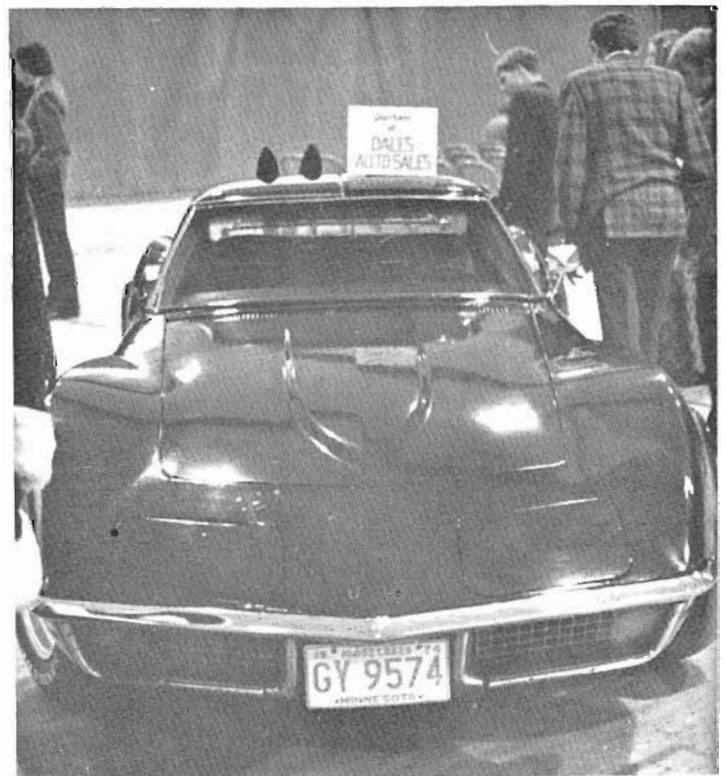

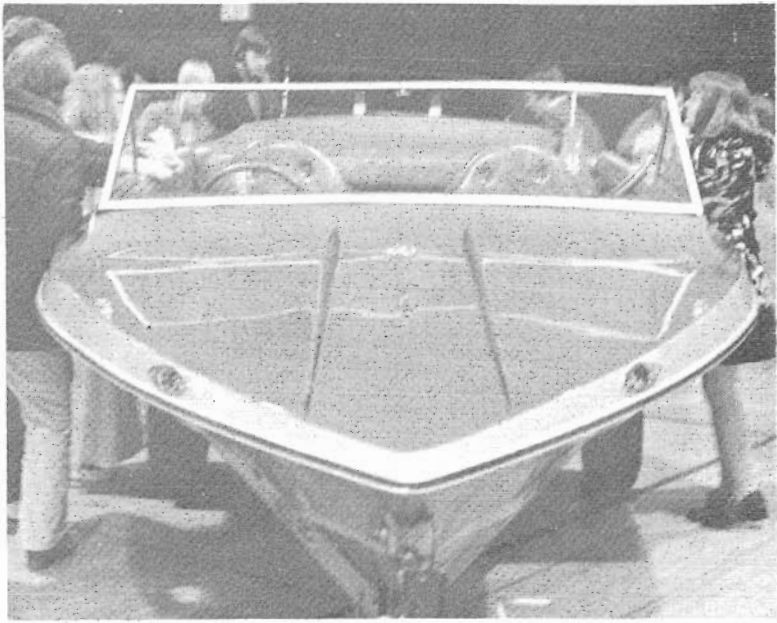

Boys'

Club

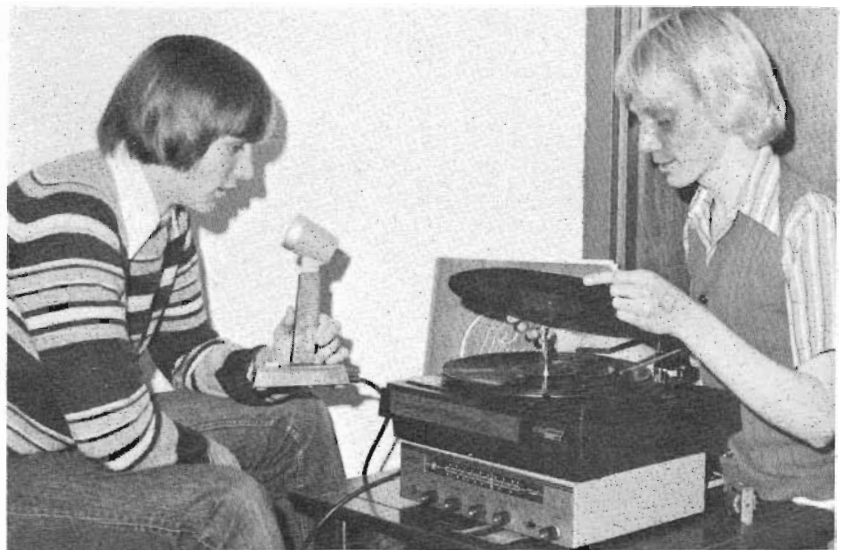

Banquet

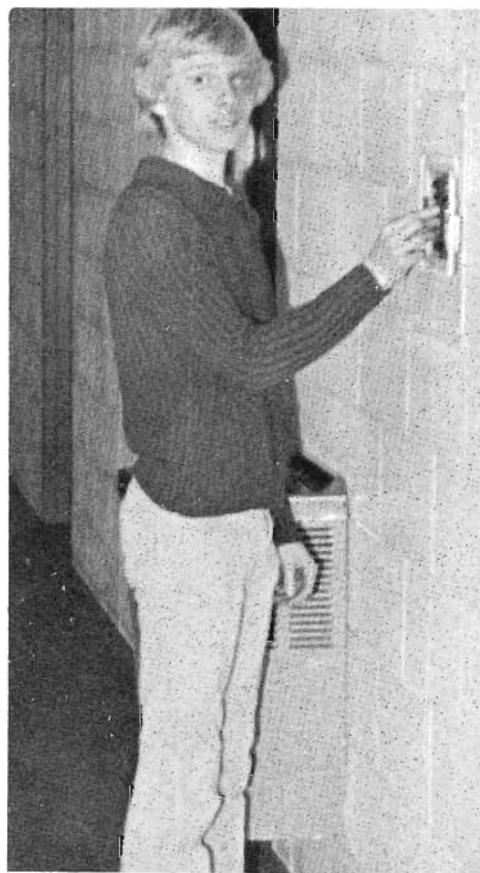

Boys' Dorm Life

Getting together in the Boys' dorm lobby and having a ramblunxious get-together is one of the most common things done in the dorm, especially during study period. Of course, with the new sound system, most everyone gets their studying done before the KMWA radio station comes on. After Mr. Jappen says "Let's hit the sack, fack," every "Fred goes to bed." With an early rise to get to their favorite shower, the guys are off for another day.

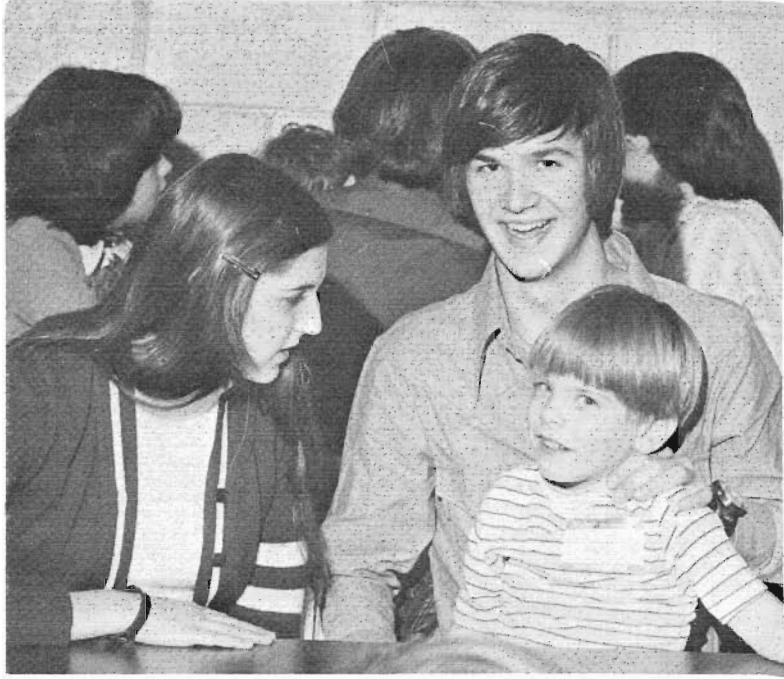

Children's Christmas Party

December 15, 1974 wasn't just another story hour for the children. It was something very special. The evening started off with a yummy supper of hot dogs, corn, ice cream cones, Christmas cookies, and many good things to eat. After the meal who should appear but Santa Claus! He even brought all the children a gift. Then all the presents were opened, the chairs were put in a semi circle and everyone watched the movie "Little Drummer Boy". After the movie, it was time to go.

The children said their good byes and loaded on the bus and left for home.
The evening had made slot of kids happy, both young and old.

Christmas Banquet

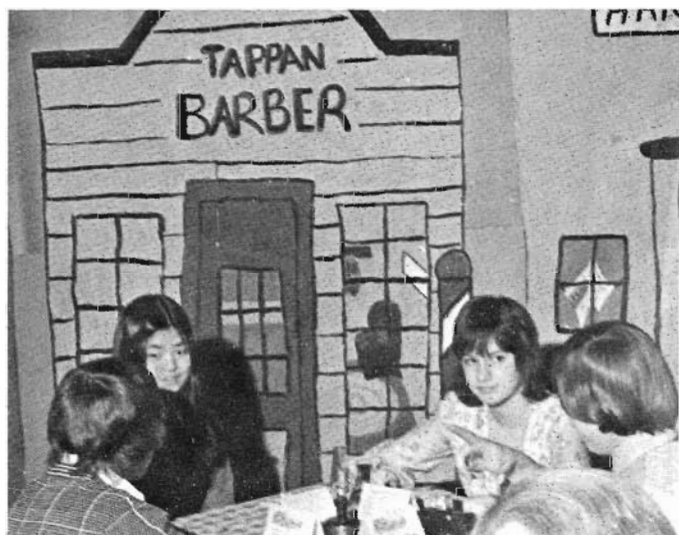

Meanwhile, back at the ranch, while Tim was combing his beard for the contest... the girls were getting ready for the western Christmas banquet. After a harty homestyle dinner we visited our backdrops of Mr. Japper's barber shop, Mrs. Reid's confectionary and Mr. Oster's Blacksmith shop. He discovered the beard growing contest winner also had old fashion pictures taken

Everyone then moseyed on into Leuker's Opera House to enjoy the movie "The adventures of Bullwhip Griffin."

Afterwards everyone went to thier respective bunk houses and hit the hay, with dreams of the old west running through thier minds.

A. & B. Campaign

Maybe the winner's name is in the balloon. Pop - no. Hurry! Get another one!

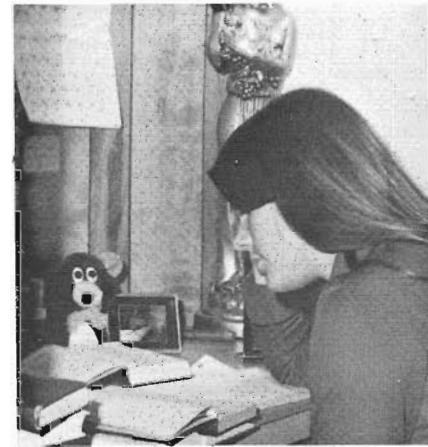

The exciting campaign had begun again. There were posters all over. VOTE. Funfilled skits livened up the evening such as wrestling with Buzz or a search for Cinderella's slipper. It was a hard choice. But we got some real winners!!

Elaine Skies?!?!

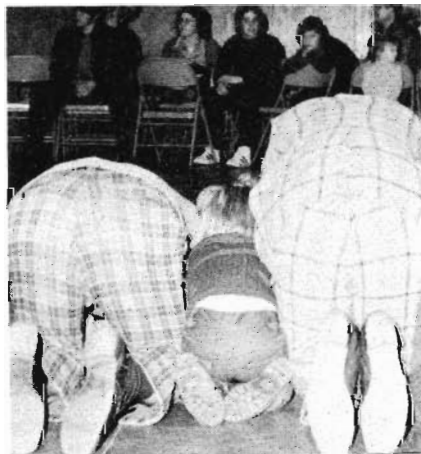

Maxi, Mini, and Midi!?!

You wouldn't dare?!

Have you got something for a headache?

Bottoms Up!!!!!!

I built a castle out of sand, the hours to make were many in demand.

But as the waves washed upon the shore, they took my castle more and more.

As I watched my castle disappear into the sea,
I thought of how my sins were making a castle in me.

But when Jesus died on the cross that day,
He started to wash my sin castle away.

Someday I hope to be with my Jesus on that silver sea,
Not to build castles on the beach, but to be with the One I've Strived to reach.

--Herber

The Lord Bless you and keep you,

The Lord lift His Countenance upon you,

And give you Peace,

The Lord make His face to shine upon you,

And be gracious unto you.

Amen
