MWA 50th Year Begins With Large Enrollment

How-do-you-do?

Saturday night, September 5, found a group of students and faculty gathered in the chapel for the annual program called the "Handshake." The program consisted of the following: Jim Gilbert, the Student Association president, gave the welcome. Mr. Hill then played a solo on his saxophone. Darlene Ytredal gave the response on behalf of the new students, and Cliff Burgeson sang a solo. Elder Butherus, our principal, made us feel very much at home by welcoming both the old and new students. Mrs. Tonsberg, the new organ teacher, favored us with an organ solo. To conclude the program, Mr. Sherwood showed us some colored slides of the summer trip the students took while staying at Maplewood and working. He also showed some pictures of the school picnic. I think one of the most interesting pictures was the one of Myrna Wadsworth putting her anklets on, her back to the camera. (Moral of the story: Never turn your back to anybody with a camera).

After the program the students lined up in the main hall for the handshake. After everybody's hand was tired, we all went out to the gym to roller skate. As we left the gym Mr. Gilbert and Mr. Butherus handed each of the students a "Drum Stick." We all enjoyed the program very much and it gave us a better chance to get acquainted with the students.

M. V. Corner

Elder Boyd Olson, Missionary Volunteer secretary of the Minnesota Conference, was the guest speaker at the first meeting of the Maplewood Volunteers on Sabbath, September 5.

He spoke of the work outlined for Adventist Youth at the recent Youth's Congress, and encouraged the students to take an active part in the soul-winning work, such as "Outpost Evangelism," the Literature and Sunshine bands, and the Master Guide Club. These various bands were organized with a good enrollment in each.

The meeting on September 12 was a story-hour, conducted by Mrs. B. G. Butherus.

Changes At Maplewood

Who doesn't like a few changes now and then, especially if they are changes for the better. We were all happily surprised when we came back to Maplewood this fall and noticed all the improvements that had been made in our absence and some that are being made now. The first change that was noticed by most of us was that the dining room and kitchen had been re-decorated and that there are new curtains in the dining room. These popular places in our daily life at Maplewood look so much nicer and cleaner now.

The next change we noticed was that the bookstore has been moved to the room where the personnel office was. The store now has a nice glass counter and much more room for the customers.

Three classrooms have been re-decorated. The typing room, the English room, and the Math. room were painted this summer and made ready for our classes. The girls were happy to see the new steps in their dormitory from the first floor to the second landing. The girls on third floor were made happy by the addition of the rubber tile on their hall floor. The girls on fourth may not be happy with the installation of the bell in their hall, but at least they have no excuse now for tardiness, because "they didn't hear the bell."

Last, but not least, the entrance to the Craftshop is going to have a covering over the steps. This winter the steps leading to the shop won't be filled in with snow. The bricks are being put in now for the new entrance.

By The Still Waters

For our first vesper service since school started, we had Elder Wayne Olson, a missionary from Lebanon, speak to us Friday night, September 4. He and his wife told us of the many different people there and showed us the costumes of these people. They also told us of Lebanon's great need for missionaries and teachers. For Sabbath services on September 4, Elder Boyd Olson, Missionary Volunteer and Educational secretary of the Northern Union Conference, spoke to us. He gave a very inspirational talk.

Vesper service on September 11 was given by Elder Butherus. We had our first testimony service of the year. It surely inspired all to hear the new and old students tell why they were thankful to the Lord. The Sabbath service was given by Mr. Gilbert, the science teacher. He talked to us about God's everlasting love.

Convocation

After a long, busy day of registration, new and old students gathered with the faculty members in Maplewood's chapel at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday evening, September 1. Jennifer Butherus played a marimba solo, and Jim Gilbert played a trombone solo to begin the Convocation. Elder Murphy, Bible teacher at the Academy, prayed earnestly that God will bless our school this year. Mr. Butherus, principal, welcomed the students and then introduced the speaker of the evening, Elder J. D. Smith, president of the Northern Union Conference. In his talk Elder Smith counseled the students to be of good courage and let the Lord guide them during this school year and let Him work out His plan for their lives.

TWO NEW TEACHERS JOIN STAFF

As this NORTHERNER goes to press, we are in the third week of this school year. Everyone is busy, students and teachers alike, and the fall days are passing swiftly by. September 1 was registration day, but several students came a few days late. Up until this day (September 15) one hundred fifty-five students have enrolled, including the special music students. September 1 was a busy day, and classes began the following day. As usual, there were a few conflicts and changes of decisions to be ironed out, but at the close of the second week, everyone seemed to be settled in their class schedules and the regular activities have been organized for the most part.

The class schedule is essentially the same as last year. Woodworking is being taught the first semester by Mr. Sherwood for the freshmen boys, and Mr. Bartlett will teach Agriculture the second semester. Mr. Davis has a larger number of young men in the Medical Cadet Corps this year than last.

The senior class has the largest membership—forty-four. The sophomores number thirty-three; the juniors thirty-two; and the freshmen thirty. The special music students are taking voice, organ, or piano.

We welcome two new staff members to Maplewood this year. Miss Elizabeth Lothian is the new Dean of Girls, and Mrs. Barbara Tonsberg is here to teach organ and piano.

The Symphonette is again meeting two afternoons of the week. The M.C.C. meet once a week in the afternoon, and the Home Economics II and Art classes also meet in the afternoon.

Chapel meets three times weekly, and on Tuesdays and Thursdays the choir meets during the chapel period.

A full program lies ahead for the students and teachers of Maplewood. With such a program of classes and work, plus the usual amount of recreation, we bespeak a busy year for everyone.

"All men make mistakes but only fools repeat them."

A Letter From a Student

Dear Maplewood Academy,

I had heard much about you before I came, and after spending ten years in a large public school, I couldn't imagine a school with such a homey, Christian atmosphere. You see, this is my first year here, and I really feel it a privilege to attend a school where the Lord is the center of everything that goes on.

As I write this, I can hear the choir singing in the chapel, and the beautiful organ music filling the room. I can see the long colored windows with the sun sending its beams upon the large audience both downstairs and in the balcony.

Many of us think it nothing to be in a place like this, but to me it means a great sacrifice on the part of my parents, and a privilege for me that not everyone has a chance at. So I hope this will encourage others to come and be a member of our big, happy family at Maplewood Academy. "Educating for Eternity."

Signed—A member of West Hall.

Boost The "Northerner"

Ownership promotes loyalty, for it is largely because we feel directly connected with and responsible for a thing that we boost for its success. Past time shows a staunch confirmation of the fact, for our school paper, THE NORTHERNER, has often been the means of not only promoting school spirit within the school but in drawing others into the friendly circle of school companionship. "The Northerner" is your paper and you—student, subscriber—are personally responsible for the success it gains. Boost for THE NORTHERNER.

It is exactly three weeks ago today since Maplewood's halls were filled with wandering, wondering, lonesome, homesick, new students and happy, enthusiastic, much-at-home old students. Today all of the students are busy, eager, friendly boosters of the school and all it stands for. We here at Maplewood are always busy. We have open house programs, concerts, clubs, hikes, parties, and various other entertainments to look forward to. We want you—our subscribers—to learn all about our activities here, too, so you need our school paper. At the present time a campaign for "Northerner" subscriptions is at its height. The student body is divided into two groups, the girls competing with the boys, as we have done the past three years. With this interesting division, the students are out

Chapel Chats

The members of Maplewood's staff began their regular "turn" at chapel talks with Mr. Bartlett on Friday, September 4. He spoke of the importance of receiving a Christian education. He used several quotations from the book "Education," by Mrs. Ellen G. White, in counseling the students concerning the possibility of being in a Christian school, yet failing to receive the full benefit of a Christian education.

In his chapel talk on September 7, Mr. Burgeson read a stirring message, "The Last Day," and then talked on the importance of being ready for the last day on this earth.

Wednesday, September 9, was a "special" day for the students and teachers at Maplewood. Elder V. W. Becker, educational secretary of the Northern Union, made his first visit to the school for this year. He spoke in chapel about "Opportunity," and advised the students in a strong way to be ready when opportunity comes. "This is your year of opportunity," he said, as he counseled the students to make the most of their opportunities to gain a Christian education.

"Banana Land" was the title of an interesting film shown in chapel on September 14.

Miss Guinevere Sherwood, class of '53, visited her parents and friends in Hutchinson the first week in September. Guinevere will be enrolled as a freshman at Emmanuel Missionary College this fall.

Crescit Eundo —

There has been much activity in the West Hall since the girls came back to school. The first thing the girls had on their agenda was to elect officers for the Crescit Eundo Club. Carol Eklund was elected president for the first semester. Vice president is Harriet Anderson; secretary, Betty Daniels; treasurer, Ellen Olson; and Sergeant-at-arms is Jan Zempel. For our first meeting we had worship and a marshmallow roast out in the North Woods. On the end of each marshmallow stick we found our Friendship Sister's name. The same night we serenaded the boys.

While the boys were enjoying an overnight hike on the evening of September 12, the girls skated and played volley ball in the gym.

Several nights ago the girls on third floor were suddenly awakened by a weird scream. (What about it, Darlene?)

—Betty Daniels

Knights of East Hall —

Tuesday night, September 8, the boys held their first "Knights of East Hall" meeting. An election was held, and the officers for the first semester are: Carl Olson, president; Loren Denler, vice-president; Jim Gilbert, secretary; Glen Roberts, treasurer; Walter Denny, Sergeant-at-arms; and Robert Bergh, pastor.

After the election we went to the gym and played a game of bombardment.

The boys' club meeting on Tuesday, September 15, consisted of a business meeting. We discussed various ways that we could raise money for a loudspeaker system in the boys' dorm, which is badly needed.

—Jim Gilbert

The "men" of East Hall braved the elements at Lake Washington for a special type of entertainment Saturday night, September 12. They were transported to the lake in the conference truck and three faculty cars.

After they had prepared a place to spend the night, a game of capture the flag was organized. The lower classes challenged the Seniors to compete with them in the game. The Seniors accepted the challenge and won, of course!

After the game some went swimming while others toasted marshmallows. It was quite late before everyone finally bedded down for the night.

In the morning everyone that was able to, rose to an early and most invigorating breakfast, cooked by Mr. Gilbert and Mr. Haughey. After breakfast they packed their gear and headed for Maplewood Academy.

It is not easy—
To apologize,
To begin over,
To be unselfish,
To take advice,
To admit error,
To face a sneer,
To be charitable,
To keep on trying,
To be considerate,
To avoid mistakes,
To endure success,
To keep out of the rut,
To think and then act,
To forgive and forget,
To make the best of a little,
To subdue an unruly temper,
To maintain a high standard,
To shoulder a deserved blame,
To recognize the silver lining—
But it always pays.

MRS. TONSBERG

"This is the first time I've been in Minnesota, and I certainly do like it here!" That's what Mrs. Tonsberg says when anyone mentions Maplewood to her.

She was born in Sacramento, California, and graduated from Pacific Union College and Academy.

Her schedule has always been a busy one. For four years she taught piano and organ at Modesto, California, besides the fifth grade in a neighboring town. Moving here didn't seem to help very much. In addition to teaching thirty-eight piano and organ students, she teaches geometry, is church organist and choir accompanist. Two lively children, Bobby and Reldon, age five and three and one-half, also keep her busy.

"I didn't know anyone when I came except Mr. Hill," she said. It was really the anticipated thrill of seeing so much ice and snow that attracted Mrs. Tonsberg to come this far away from home.

We're very happy to welcome you to our music department, and may this year be pleasant indeed.

Miss Lothian—

The girls of West Hall wish to welcome and introduce to you our new dean, Miss Elizabeth Lothian, who comes to us from Oak Park Academy at Nevada, Iowa. She has been there for several years and comes with a great amount of wisdom and experience.

Her home state is Missouri and she has taught in five others. She attended our academy and junior college at Keene, Texas, and finished her B.A. degree at Union College.

Miss Lothian's hobby is flowers but she is known to many as a "dirt chaser." Her pet peeves are cameras and hypodermic needles.

Miss Lothian is a great inspiration to us and she has made many improvements around the dormitory already. We are looking forward to a good year here with our new "school mother."

ELIZABETH LOTHIAN

A SUCCESSFUL SUMMER

The time clock in the Bindery watched thirty-one workers check in and out twice a day this past summer. These thirty-one workers earned approximately $8,500. To earn this amount they worked about 11,500 hours.

When the last worker checked out on August 18, the summer crew had finished 18,997 books. This business was worth $29,520.31 and was done with 449 accounts which averaged $65.70 each. The Bindery will never make large profits but it does provide work for many who wish to attend Maplewood Academy. The Bindery has been out of the red for thirteen consecutive years and we trust that this year will not be an exception. We invite you on your next visit to see the Maplewood Bookbindery.

Wedding Bells

CALLAHAN-BLEUER

At eight o'clock Sunday evening, August 30, Miss Beverly Callahan, class of '53, and Edwin Bleuer, class of '52, were united in marriage in a pretty candlelight ceremony in the Albert Lea Seventh-day Adventist church. Corrine Simpson, class of '53, was maid of honor, and Clayton Bleuer, brother of the groom, was best man. Three solos were sung by Robert Bergh—"The Lord's Prayer," "Oh, Promise Me," and "Because." The bride's two small cousins were flower girl and Bible boy. Owen Dahlquist and Orville Bleuer, both Maplewood graduates, served as ushers. A reception for the bride's and groom's relatives followed the ceremony. Robert Bergh, Marcia Peterson, and Clifford Burgeson provided the music for the reception.

—Virginia Abernathy

RUSHOLD-PARRY

On Monday evening, September 14, several hundred people gathered in one of the many churches of Minneapolis for the wedding service which united Iva Dawn Rushold, class of '51, and Robert Parry, class of '50, in marriage. The bride had three attendants—Patricia Rushold, class of '49, Sally Rushold, and Myvon Parry, sister of the groom. The groom's attendants were Oliver Bolduc, Carroll Rushold, and William Johnson. "Hear Our Prayer," "Entreat Me Not to Leave Thee," and other selections were sung by Carroll Rushold and Margie Jarnes, class of '52. A reception for the relatives and guests followed the ceremony. Miss Arlene Larson, class of '52, caught the bride's bouquet.

—Mary Lou Larson

CARTER-MCKELLIP

The Maplewood Academy chapel was the scene of a very pretty wedding on the evening of August 17 when Norma Jean Carter, class of '52, became the bride of Bruce McKellip, class of '52. The bride's attendants were Mary Long-Merickel, matron of honor, and Carol Christensen, bridesmaid. The groom was attended by his brother, Jack McKellip and Wayne Fankhanel. Paula and Kenny Binder were the flower girl and Bible boy. Mr. and Mrs. Herb Senne, sister and brother-in-law of the groom, sang several selections during the ceremony, and Elder H. L. Wernick of Mankato was the minister. A reception followed in the gymnasium, which had been beautifully decorated for the occasion. A program was given by Harriet Anderson, Clifford Burgeson, Jennifer Butherus, and Orlo Gilbert as vocalists and instrumentalists.

FOREFRONT TIDINGS

Elizabeth Webster-Olson, (class of '32), and Judith Wester-Christensen, (class of '30), were prowling around the grounds, buildings, and the yard of their old home at 940 Ast Street last Sabbath, September 5. Judith noted the changes, but said the most outstanding thing to her was that the main building at Maplewood Academy had shrunk so much in size since she was a student here! Elizabeth accompanied her husband, Elder Boyd Olson, the new M. V. and Educational secretary for Minnesota. The mother of the girls was also with the group. It seemed very natural to see her sitting in church.

We learned from Mrs. Beardsley, who paid us a short call last week that Ronald, (class of '39), is now working at the Battle Creek Sanitarium, and likes it very much.

★ ★ ★

Stemple Johnson brought very welcome greetings from Barbara Gammon, (class of '38). It seems to me that her last name now is Roderick, but I'm not at all sure of it. Anyway, whatever the name, I'm glad for the friendly "Hello" across the miles. There are so many nice things to remember about Barbara.

★ ★ ★

Joe Hanson, (class of '48), and Lois Baumgartner-Hanson surprised me when I was out getting my Art class indoctrinated with the varied shapes and sizes of trees. They stopped as they saw us and spoke. Two cute little miniature models of the parents looked with interested eyes at the things that pertained to the alma mater of their parents. Come again, Joe and Lois.

★ ★ ★

Cecil Conquest, Jr., (class of '48), is on his way home from Korea. In fact, he's already back on U.S. soil. He'll probably be in Hutchinson before this is printed. Welcome home, Cecil!

★ ★ ★

Sally Nelson-Thompson (class of '51), and her husband, Vernon Thompson (class of '49), stopped to call on us on Sunday, September 13. Vernon is still in the army, and will be for several months yet. They are stationed in Virginia.

★ ★ ★

Pauline Zempel (class of '49), came with Jan Zempel when school opened. She probably wanted to be sure Jan got settled all right to start the new school year as comfortably as possible.

THE PASSING OF A FRIEND

Alumni and former students of Maplewood were saddened by the news of the death of Salisbury Zytoskee, class of 1930, in Lincoln, Nebraska, recently. His wife, Mabel Chaffee, and three children are mourning the loss of a devoted husband and father. Mr. Zytoskee taught church school for several years and just before his long illness began, he was Home Missionary secretary of one of the conferences of the Southwestern Union. His niece, Dixie Oglesby, is a student at Maplewood this year.
